The Band

Mark Gillett - Lead Vocals / Guitar. Mark has been playing for well over 30 years and has supported many well known bands. Mark has toured throughout Australia and New Zealand. He brings to the Creedence and Friends show a dynamic vocal capturing the sounds of John Fogerty and those guitar riffs that have become synonymous with Creedence Clearwater Revival.

Gary Jelfs - Lead Guitar / Lap Steel. Gary has been part of the Australian music scene for over 40 years. Gary's creativity on guitar and lap steel has him as a sought-after session musician. His playing of John Fogerty classics should not be missed.

John Williams - Mandolin / Guitar / Manager. John began playing guitar in the late '60's alongside many renowned artists. John now plays the mandolin to add to the show's dynamic performance. With the current material from John Fogerty's shows the Ovation mandolin adds the blue grass sound that embraces the era of the late 60's and 70's.

Mark Langfield - Drums. Mark has been in the music scene for over 30 years, having worked and performed with Australia's best musicians. His energy produces an amazing drum sound. Mark also runs a successful audio business.

Scott Murray - Bass / Vocals. Scott is a multi-instrumentalist who plays bass guitar with the show. His vocal harmonies are pivotal to the band's characteristic sound. Scott has supported many of Australia's leading artists and is a highly regarded musician.
