

THE JOHNNY CASH AND JUNE CARTER TRIBUTE SHOW

Featuring 2 international performers The Johnny Cash and June Carter Show is a show not to be missed.

Johnny Cash was known as The Man in Black and single handily showcased country music across the globe. Known for his nostalgic voice Johnny Cash endured what can only be described as the ultimate career spanning over 4 decades of country hits including, Ring of Fire, I Walk the Line, Get Rhythm, Folsom Prison Blues and so much more. Recording his first epic hits at the iconic Sam Phillips Studio, Johnny Cash appealed to the everyday working-class American which then appealed to the masses across the world, gaining him fans everywhere and cementing him as one of the all-time greats and legends of the music business. Not only did he write and perform his own hits he also engineered and guided some of the greatest talents ever to grace the stage, in his own TV Show which was televised nationally and internationally direct from The Grand Ole Opry. This TV series ran for almost 3 years and was proclaimed as a highlight in many an artist's career including The Everly Brothers, Eric Clapton, Chuck Berry, Stevie Wonder just to name but a few.

June Carter was in her own right a seasoned and talented performer also winning writing accolades for Ring of Fire June was part of the Country Music ensemble that toured across America in the late 50's including Elvis, Jerry-Lee Lewis and Johnny Cash. The attraction between Johnny Cash and June Carter became too much to bare and as the movie showcases (Walk the Line) the 2 became inseparable and married forever after. Forging ahead their talents were showcased again to the world over in their hit TV series as mentioned and June Carter has been hailed as one of the Queens of Country.

Johnny Cash in his later years teamed up with the likes of Kris Kristofferson and Willie Nelson to form the country super group "The Highway Men". These country legends toured together in the later years of Johnny Cash's life to sell out shows across the globe and some of those songs will be showcased in this tribute show.

The Johnny Cash and June Carter Tribute Show is one night of pure country hits and will have your toes tapping and voices singing to all the greatest hits of The Man in Black and more.
